

A MELANCHOLY SONG

Traditional*

Music by
ANTONY HOPKINS

Allegretto

VOICE

Trip up-on tren - chers, and

PIANO

p

dance up-on dish- es, ——— My mo - ther sent me for some barm, some barm, She bid me go light-ly and come again quick-ly for fear the young men should do me some * Words from 'Straw in the Hair' by D. Kilham Roberts by kind permission of John Lane The Bodley Head Ltd, London.

harm. — gva Yet did-n't you see, yet

sempre p

did-n't you see what naugh-ty tricks they put up-on me; They broke my pitch-er, and spilt the wa - ter, Huff'd my mo-ther, and chid her daugh-ter, and kis -

f

- s'd my sis - ter in - stead of me.

p 8 pp

Leg.